BACKGROUND

POLICY

Ripley Town Council has adopted this Data Privacy Policy to provide a sound structure to the way it conducts its business

Ripley Town Council Data Privacy Notice

1. Your personal data – what is it?

“Personal data” is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, photographs, videos, email address, or address). Identification can be by the personal data alone or in conjunction with any other personal data. The processing of personal data is governed by legislation relating to personal data which applies in the United Kingdom including the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”) and other local legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act.

The Council will comply with data protection law. This states that the personal data we hold about you must be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- Kept and destroyed securely including ensuring that appropriate technical and security measures are in place to protect your personal data to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

2. Who are we?

Ripley Town Council is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes. We do not collect any personal data on our website www.ripleytowncouncil.gov.uk

3. How do we process your personal data?

Ripley Town Council complies with its obligations under the “GDPR” by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to contact residents
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the Council
- To manage our employees and volunteers
- To maintain our own accounts and records
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services in Ripley township and outlying villages

4. What personal data is collected?

- To process relevant financial transactions including grants and payments for goods and services supplied to the Council
- To allow the statistical analysis of data so we can plan the provision of services.

6. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The Council is a public authority and has certain powers and duties. Most of your personal data is processed for compliance with a legal obligation which includes the discharge of the Council's statutory functions and powers. Sometime when exercising these powers or duties it is necessary to process personal data of residents or people using the Council's services. We will always take into account your interests and rights. We may also process personal data if it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you, or to take steps to enter into a contract. An example of this would be processing your data in connection with the use of sports facilities, or the use of the Cemetery.

Sometimes the use of your personal data requires your consent. We will first obtain your consent to that use.

7. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with members of the Council in order to carry out a service or for purposes connected with the Council.

The Council will implement appropriate security measures to protect your personal data. This section of the Privacy Policy provides information about the third parties with whom the Council will share your personal data. These third parties also have an obligation to put in place appropriate security measures and will be responsible to you directly for the manner in which they process and protect your personal data. It is likely that we will need to share your data with some or all of the following (but only where necessary):

- Our agents, suppliers and contractors. For example, we may ask a commercial provider to publish or distribute newsletters on our behalf, or to maintain our database software;
- On occasion, other local authorities or not for profit bodies with which we are carrying out joint ventures e.g. in relation to facilities or events for the community.

We will not share your data with any third party unless another law permits this.

8. How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so. We may keep some other records for an extended period of time. For example, it is current best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 8 years to support HMRC audits or provide tax information. We may have legal obligations to retain some data in connection with our statutory obligations as a public authority. The Council is permitted to retain data in order to defend or pursue claims. In some cases the law imposes a time limit for such claims (for example 3 years for personal injury claims or 6 years for contract claims). We will retain some personal data for this purpose as long as we believe it is necessary to be able to defend or pursue a claim. In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we will delete it when it is no longer needed.

We keep data in accordance with the Retention Policy. Data is stored electronically on the cloud which is encrypted for security and held in the UK and/or may be held in paper format in the filing cabinets in the Clerk's Office.

9. Your rights and your personal data

You have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

When exercising any of the rights listed below, in order to process your request, we may need to verify your identity for your security. In such cases we will need you to respond with proof of your identity before you can exercise these rights.

- (i) The right to access personal data we hold on you*
- (ii) The right to correct and update the personal data we hold on you*
- (iii) The right to have your personal data erased*
- (iv) The right to object to processing of your personal data or to restrict it to certain purposes only*
- (v) The right to data portability*
- (vi) The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time for any processing of data to which consent was obtained*
- (vii) The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.*

10. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

11. Transfer of Data Abroad

Any personal data transferred to countries or territories outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") will only be placed on systems complying with measures giving equivalent protection of personal rights either through international agreements or contracts approved by the European Union. [Our website is also accessible from overseas so on occasion some personal data (for example in a newsletter) may be accessed from overseas].

12. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Privacy Policy, then we will provide you with a Privacy Notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
